

I think that xm radio should be able to give local weather and traffic. If the local radio and television programmers are so afraid of xm radio, then maybe they are not doing their job very well.